I would like to plead (check only 1 box):

Guilty

A plea of guilty is an admission that you committed the offense. You will be found guilty and a penalty will be imposed and the forfeiture is due and payable immediately.

Not Guilty

A plea of not guilty is denying that you committed the offense. The matter will be adjourned to a later date for a pre-trial conference, and if unresolved, a court trial would be scheduled. Your pre-trial information will be mailed to you. (You are not required to pay your forfeiture until after your pre-trial conference or trial.)

No Contest

A no contest plea means you neither admit to nor deny the charges. You will be found guilty in this court, but a conviction from a no contest plea could not be used against you in a civil lawsuit, particularly if the incident resulted in injury to someone else's person or property.
